

TIMES FISH BUREAU

LIGHT RECEIPTS THIS MORNING

TWO DRAGGERS AND HALIBUTER
ONLY ARRIVALS SINCE YESTERDAY.

Fresh fish receipts continued light here today, there being but three arrivals. One was the halibuter Pollyanna, down from Boston with a few salt and fresh fish, and the other two, off-shore draggers for the General Seafoods Corporation. None of the seiners landed fish here, as the fleet disposed of all their catches at the pier. Most of the boats are in port today, but a few were cruising off Bass Rocks shore this morning looking for fish.

MACKEREL FLEET HAD BEST WEEK OF THE SEASON

The mackerel fleet landed 26,927 barrels of fresh and 232 barrels of salt mackerel last week, the largest receipts of one week this year. The mackerel were of small size but of fine quality. The fish are not so plentiful to the eastward and the large body of mackerel is located off Cape Ann, south to Highland light, Cape Cod.

They sold to wholesale dealers during the past week, ex-vessel from one to five cents per pound. A few large fish sold from 1-2 to 18 cents per pound. Quite a few fish were sold here for salting. Labor and the supply of salt was greatly taxed in caring for the large supplies coming in daily.

In the corresponding week last year, squally weather hampered fishing for mackerel and the fleet landed 2073 barrels of fresh mackerel that were caught mostly off Nantucket. They sold from 15 to 18 cents for large and from 10 to 18 cents per pound for blinks or tinkers and $5 to $12 per barrel for bullseye mackerel.

A year ago Str. Orion landed a trip of 75,000 pounds of large fresh mackerel caught on Nantucket shoals and stocked $10,500, probably the largest single stock ever made by a seiner on a trip of only fresh mackerel.

The total catch of mackerel to date has been 245,377 barrels of fresh and 1032 barrels of salt mackerel; 1928, 186,250 barrels of fresh and 352 barrels of salt mackerel; 1927, 249,208 barrels of fresh and 1092 barrels of salt mackerel; 1926, 270,439 barrels of fresh and 5362 barrels of salt mackerel; 1925, 183,412 barrels of fresh and 11,999 barrels of salt mackerel.
